Formats of certificates of Architect, Engineer and chartered Accountant:

3. For each project developed by a developer/builder, he shall open an Escrow account in a nationalized bank, earmarked for the concerned project, in which 70% of the amounts collected from the allottees/purchasers of flats/plots shall have to be kept. Any withdrawal by the builder/developer, from this account can be done only for the work of the earmarked project based on the certificate about the progress of work, jointly given by project architect, project engineer and the chartered accountant in Form -1, Form-2 and Form -3.

4. The certificates, issued by the project architect, project engineer, Chartered accountant and submitted to the banks for getting release of money from the earmarked account for the particular project shall be in From 1, 2 and 3 respectively. The certificate issued by the project architect on completion of each of the building/wing of the real estate project, shall be in form 4.

(a) The Authority may, at any time, direct the secretary or any one or more officers or any other person as the Authority considers appropriate to study, investigate or furnish information with respect to any matter within the jurisdiction of the Authority under the Act and Rules.

(b) The Authority may, for the above purpose, give such other direction as it may deem fit and state the time within which the report is to be submitted or information furnished.

(c) The Authority may issue or authorize the secretary or an officer to issue directions to any person to produce before it and allow to be examined and kept by an officer of the Authority directed in this behalf the books, accounts, etc., or to furnish any information to the designated officer.

(d) The Authority may issue such directions, for the purpose of collection of any information, particulars or document that the Authority considers necessary in connection with the discharge of its function under the Act and the Rules.

(e) If any such report or information obtained appears to the Authority to be insufficient or inadequate, the Authority or the secretary or an officer authorized for the purpose may give directions for further inquiry, report and furnishing of information.

(f) The Authority may direct such incidental, consequential and supplemental matters to be attended to which may be considered relevant in connection with the above.

34. If the report for information obtained in accordance with Regulation 30 above or any part thereof is proposed to be relied upon by the Authority for forming its opinion or view in any proceedings, the parties to the proceedings shall be given a reasonable opportunity for filing objections and making submissions on such report or information.

Confidentiality:

35. (a) The Authority shall appraise and determine whether any document or evidence provided to it by any party and claimed by that party to be of a confidential nature merits being withheld from disclosure to other parties as being confidential and shall provide brief reasons in writing for arriving at its conclusion.

(b) If the Authority is of the view that the claim for confidentiality is justified the Authority may direct that the same be not provided to such parties as the Authority may deem fit. However, the party claiming the confidentiality shall provide a brief non-confidential summary of the substance of the documents found to be confidential and the import of the same.

(c) Notwithstanding the above, it shall be to the Authority to take into consideration the contents of the documents found to be confidential in arriving at its decision.

Review of decisions, directions and orders:

36. Any person aggrieved by a decision or order of fine/ or penalty or an order of compensation passed by the Authority or the Adjudicating Officer, may file an appeal before the Appellate Tribunal within sixty days. But the appeal shall not be admitted unless 30% of the amount of fine /penalty has been deposited.

37. (a) Any person aggrieved by a direction, decision or order of the Authority, from which (I) no appeal has been preferred or (II) from which no appeal is allowed, may, upon the discovery of new and important matter or evidence which, after the exercise of due diligence, was not within his knowledge or could not be produced by him at the time when the direction, decision or order was passed or on account of some mistake or error apparent from the face of the record or for any other sufficient reasons, may apply for a review of such order, within thirty (30) days of the date of the direction, decision or order, as the case may be, to the Authority.

(b) An application for such review shall be filed in the same manner as a complaint under these Regulations.

(c) The Authority, shall for the purpose of any proceedings for review of its own decisions, directions and orders be vested with the same powers as are vested in a civil court under the code of civil procedure, 1908.

(d) When it appears to the Authority that there is no sufficient ground for review, the Authority shall reject such review application.

(e) When the Authority is of the opinion that the review application should be granted, it shall grant the same provided that no such application will be granted without previous notice to the opposite side or party to enable him to appear and to be heard in support of the decision or order, the review of which is applied for.

(a) Where in a proceeding, any of the parties to the proceeding dies or is adjudicated as an insolvent or in the case of a company under liquidation/winding up, the proceeding shall continue with the successors-in-interest, the executor, administrator, receiver, liquidator or other legal representative of the party concerned, as the case may be.

(b) The Authority may, for reasons to be recorded, treat the proceedings as abated in case the Authority so directs and dispense with the need to bring the successors-in-interest on the record of the case.

(c) In case any person wishes to bring on record the successors-in-interest, etc., the application for the purpose shall be filed within ninety (90) days the event requiring the successors-in-interest to be brought on record. The Authority may condone the delay, if any, for sufficient reasons.
Issue of orders and directions:

39. Subject to the provisions of the Act, Rules and Regulations, the Authority may, from time to time issue orders and directions in regard to the implementation of the Regulations and procedure to be followed.

Saving of inherent power of the Authority:

40. Nothing in the Regulations shall be deemed to limit or otherwise affect the inherent power of the Authority to make such orders as may be necessary for meeting the ends of justice or to prevent the abuse of the process of the Authority.

41. Nothing in these Regulations shall bar the Authority from adopting in conformity with the provisions of the Act or Rules, a procedure, which is at variance with any of the provisions of these Regulations including summary procedures, if the Authority, in view of the special circumstance of a matter or class of matters and for reasons to be recorded in writing, deems it necessary or expedient for so dealing with such a matter or class of matters.

42. Nothing in the Regulations shall bar the Authority to deal with any matter or exercise any power under the Act or Rules for which no regulations have been framed and the Authority may deal with such matters, powers and functions in a manner it thinks fit.

General power to amend/rectify:

43. The Authority may, at any time and on such terms as to costs or otherwise, as it may think fit, amend any defect or error in any proceedings before it (including any clerical or arithmetical error in any order passed by the Authority) and all necessary amendments, rectifications shall be made for the purpose of determining the real question or issue arising in the proceedings, as are versed in a Civil court under C.P.C. 1908.

Provided that if the Authority desires to make amendments, rectifications in order to determine the real question or issue arising the Authority shall provide an opportunity to the parties affected by such amendment or rectification touching the real question or issue to make representations and submissions with respect to the proposed amendment or rectification.
Power to remove difficulties:

44. If any difficulty arises in giving effect to any of the provisions of the Regulations, the Authority may, by general or special order, do anything not being inconsistent with the provisions of the Act or rules, which appears to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of removing the difficulties.

Extension or abridgement of time prescribed:

45. Subject to the provisions of the Act or the Rules, the time prescribed by the Regulations or by order of the Authority for doing any act may be extended (whether it has already expired or not) or abridged for sufficient reason by an order of the Authority.

Effect of non-compliance:

46. Failure to comply with any requirement of the Regulations shall not invalidate any proceeding merely by reason of such failure unless the Authority is of the view that such failure has resulted in miscarriage of justice.

Costs:

47. (a) Subject to such condition and limitation as may directed by the Authority, the costs of and incidental to, all proceedings shall be awarded at the discretion of the Authority and the Authority shall have full power to determine by whom or out of what funds and to what extent such costs are to be paid and give all necessary directions for the aforesaid purpose.

(b) The costs shall be paid within thirty (30) days from the order or within such time as the Authority may, by order, direct. If a party fails to comply with an order for costs within the permitted period, the order of the Authority awarding costs shall be executed forthwith in the same manner as a decree/order of a civil court.

Administrative charges, standard fees, late fees etc.:

48. (a) The Authority may, by order, fix standard fees, including annual fees, to be levied on the promoters or real estate agent or allottees for inspection of documents, certified copies of documents, the updating of website, database management and maintenance of the website.

(b) The Authority, under section 4(1) of the Act, will have the power to revise or supplement the rates of the fees for registration of different types of Real Estate Projects, from time to time, but not within a time period of one year from the date of effect of the last notified rates. Once, notified, these rates of fees will override the last notified rates, as also the originally specified rates in Rule 3.3 of Jharkhand Real Estate (Regulation and Development) Rules 2017.

(c) The Authority, under section 34(e) shall have the power to revise or supplement the rates of fees on the allottees or the promoters or real estate agents from time to time, but not within a time period of one year from the date of effect of the last notified rates. Once, notified, these rates of fees will override the last notified rates, as also the originally specified rates in JHARERA Rules.

[ Note :- The ratio of enhancement is the rates should not exceed the ratio of cost inflation index during the corresponding period. ]

49. (a) In case of ongoing projects, which were incomplete and ongoing on the date of commencement of RERA Act and JHARERA rules in Jharkhand, if there is a delay of more than three months in filing the application for registration of a real estate project, a late fee of additional 50% of the normal normal Registration fee will have to be paid;

(b) For new projects the application for registration of the project with JHARERA will have to be filed within three months from the date of approval of the Building Plan /Development Plan by the competent authority. If there is a delay of more than three months, then a late fee of additional 50% of the normal Registration fee will have to be paid;
